from the D.C. nellore, with records; and states that it would be more convenient to accept the endowment in cash, to be realized by sale of the vritti in question.

The facts of the case have been fully brought forth in the Dy: Com^rs letter.

2 Since the several claimants to the 1/4 vritti left by Ravindamma have come to an agreement that the property should be taken as an endowment for the benefit of the temple of Sri Gunjanarasimhaswami at T. Narsipur and have executed a mutchalika to that effect before the Amildar, the point for consideration and orders is whether the endowment may be accepted.

3 Land endowments being generally of a doubtful nature and also difficult of management, the Mg: Com^r is of opinion that the vritti may be sold and the realization accepted as a cash endowment. It is reported that the income from the vritti for some years is in savings.

4. No information is available with regard to the estimated cost of the vritti, its annual income and the amount in savings. The D.C. states that he Letter No.C.758/23-24 dated 14/15th September 1924 from the Deputy Commissioner, Mysore District to the Muzrai Commissioner in Mysore.

"With reference to your letter No.C.1173/23-24 dated 5th May 1924 forwarding for enquiry and report petition from one N.R.Srinivasa Iyengar of T.Narasipur praying for acceptance of certain properties endowed by the late Aravidamma for the benefit of the Sri Gunja Narasimha Swamy temple at the place, I have the honor to state that the enclosed records of enquiry received with the Nanjangud Sub Division Officer's memo No.R.O.C.960/23-24 dated 9/10-6-1924 disclosed the following facts.

2. Aravindamma above name was the 2nd wife of one LaksmiNarasimha Char of T. Narsipur. In her early days, she seems to have been abandoned by her husband on account of some alleged misconduct. After this, she was said to have lived in Nanjangud for some time and to have died in 1918 in Hedathale, Nanjangud taluk, without any issue. She had in her possession and enjoyment during her life time, one fourth vritti in Linganapur, otherwise known as Kodandarampur Agranar of Bagali ---- Dakla village in Chamarajanagar taluk. This Vritti is said to be the dowry or "Streedhana" that Aravindamma got from her father's house, and she was the sole owner thereof. She is said to have had no property from her husband's house.

3. After her death, there were two rival claimants to the property left by her. One was T.R.Srinivasa Rangachar said to be the [illegible] nephew of Aravindammas(i.e., husband's brother's son) and the other was Sundaramma alias Ammannamma said to be the wife of the adopted son of Laxmi Narasimha Char, ----- husband of Aravindamma. Deceased Laxmi Narasimhachar is reported to have had no children by any of his wives and adopted one K. Rangasamy Iyengar who also died childless leaving the widow Sundaramma.

4. When these two individuals were claiming adversly that the Khate of the vritti should be made in their name, and their claims were being investigated, one Kantekatte Upadhya Narasimha Char set up a claim to the property on the ground that Aravindamma had, during her life time executed a "Will" relinquishing her right over the vritti in his favour with the express object of endowing the property to the Sri Vendanta -- Desikar a Bhakta vigraha in the Sri Gunja Narasimhaswamy temple and that he had been appointed the Manager of the property and administrator of the religious and charitable services for which the vritti had intended to be endowed. He produced a copy of the so called will the Taluk Amildar in support of his claim. It is not registered and there are no grounds for believing that it is a genuine document.

5. On the other side, some of the residents of T.Narsipur Viz., (1) Nallarsa[illegible], (2) V.R.Srinivasa Iyengar (3) B.Venkata Narasimha Char (4) Ramanuja [illegible] (5) Salvapulliengar, have petitioned this office stating that as the property in question is the deceased Aravindamma's Streedhana, and as no one performed her obsequies after her death, it might be treated as an endowment by Aravindamma to the Sri Gunja Narasimha Swamy temple and the income therefrom utilized for certain sevas in the above temple on her (donor's) anniversary day i-e., the day of her death viz.

6. All the parties concerned viz (1) the two adverse claimants --- referred to in para 3 supra (2) Kante Matte Upadhya Narasimhachar who was in favour of Vedanta Desikar and (3) the five petitioners who were in --- favour of Sri Gunja Narasimha Swamy were summoned and heard by the Amildar on 7-8-1940 and finally they have all come to an unanimous conclusion that (a) the Vritti in question belonged to the deceased Aravindamma might be treated as an endowment to the Sri Gunja Narasimha Swamy temple at T.Narsipur in the name of the said Aravindamma, (b) that the accrued realizations --- from the Vritti since the death of Aravindamma now said to be in deposit in the Chamarajanagar Taluk Treasury be invested in the Mysore State Loan Bonds, (c) that the interest earnings on the above investment together with the income from the vritti be utilized for the marginally noted sevas in the temple, and (d) that a committee consisting of the following --- individuals be --- formed from among the parties --- interested in this affair, to supervise the conduct of the stipulated --- sevas in the temple.

Particulars.
Sevas in the Sri Gunja Narasimhaswami Sannidhi on the day of Aravindamma's death.	Rs. 5/-
Seva on Nammalwar Tirunakshtram day	" 5/-
" Ramanuja Char's Tirunakshtram day	" 10/-
Seva on the Desikar's Tirunakshatram day for the amount that may remain after deducting Rs.5/- annually for the formation of a puduvat fund for augmenting resources for the sevas in the name of the donor Aravindamma.

1 Nallarsamy Iyengar (from among five petitioners of the 3rd party.

2. Kante Katte Upadhya (Member of the 2nd party) Narasimhachar.

3. T.R.Srinivas Rangachar)
4. Kotikanyadanam Venkata) (Original claimants- 1 party.)
Narasimha char on behalf) of Ammannamma.)

7. They have all given a joint mutchalika to the above effect before the taluk Amildar on 22-4-24 which is enclosed to the file. They have further stated in their mutchalika that in case any dispute of difference of opinion should arise among the Committee members with regard to the conduct of Sevas &c., Government may interfere in the matter of adopt the course suggested by the majority of the members.

8. It is not clear from the records now before me, as to what the annual income is from the above vritti, what amount is available in the Chamarajanagar taluk Treasury, to the credit of Aravindamma for being -- invested in the State Loan and whether the total annual income from the vritti and the interest reliazations on the State Loan Bond, will be enough to meet the cost of sevas stipulated to be performed. The Sub Division Officer has been requested to furnish information on the above points --- after necessary enquiry, and on hearing from him a further report will be submitted.

The petition received with your letter under reply is herewith --- retransmitted."
